Re: Coble, et al v. Cohen & Slamowitz, et al.
Index No.: 11-CV-1037
Our File No.: 11471.00003

Edgardo Ramos, U.S.D.J.
Dated: July 17, 2013
New York, New York

Your Honor:

This office represents the Defendants in the above referenced class-action alleging violations of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, 15 U.S.C. 1692 et. seq. ("FDCPA"). I write with regard to Plaintiff's Motion to Set Aside the Magistrate's Decision and Order Dated April 10, 2013, as well as Defendant's pending Offer of Judgment. We previously directly this request to Magistrate Yanthis, but were advised today that the application should be directed to the attention of the district court judge as the objections will be decided by Your Honor.

Further to our letter of June 21, 2013 to Magistrate Yanthis, the parties have continued settlement discussions. The negotiations have made significant progress, with the parties reaching agreement in principle on several key issues. Although several others remain unresolved, the parties are optimistic that the remaining differences can be bridged over the course of the next 30-40 days.

It is for this reason that the Defendants make this second application, on consent, to extend current deadlines in connection with plaintiff's motion and defendant's offer of judgment ("OOJ").

Magistrate Yanthis previously granted the parties' application (docket number 49) to extend the time for Plaintiff to accept the OOJ until July 17, 2003 and for Defendant to oppose the motion until July 31, 2013. The parties have now stipulated that the OOJ be held in abeyance until August 27, 2013, and also that Defendants' time to oppose plaintiff's motion to set aside the magistrate's decision (docket number 50) be extended up to an including September 6, 2013.
